The Lord said that it is a new day. In November after publishing The Remnant Newspaper for 13 years we ended it. I was in Florence, Kentucky in December and I heard the Lord say, Start a new written work, a new written vision. Do it at first on a quarterly basis, and then the next year do it on a bimonthly basis and then the third year will be edited every month by that time the country will be in revival.

We see through a glass darkly but we have heard from God. He has spoken to us that the new move of God is in its infancy right now and to write the vision is to make the transition from a newspaper to a magazine. We still produce an On-Line Magazine that started last year. It has been encouraging to receive emails back from this adventure says that people are really enjoying reading the on-line version, but something is missing. God still wants me to publish a printed page.

Transition is a difficult word, it is a word the Jews found when they begin to go into the Promised Land. Recently we received a publication from Bart Pierce in Baltimore, Md. from the Rock Church. One of the main articles in this publication was on transition. Pierce, pastor of Rock Church, says that Transition is a very difficult place to be, in fact it is a very dangerous place to be. Pierce used the Raider of the Lost Arc Movies to explain himself. Indiana Jones who is the main character in the movie finds himself walking across an old wrickty clap board bridge hung together by ropes over a 1,000 foot drope. Jones want to get closer to his ultimate capture of the arc but he had to cross this very dangerous bridge. He said that the reward of going over this bridge was greater than the risk. Right now we are on that bridge of transition. We are creating something with a new vision.

Recently we did an on-line edition concerning the Brownsville Revival. As I began to write this paper, I felt very burdened and had a writers block. Then that night I went to prayer before God and the powerful anointing of the Holy Spirit came over me as I was on my knees in the dyning room of my house. The next day I began to write and the words and the memory recall of the last eight years was rapid. One pastor who received this work said, "This makes me hungry for revival."

I began to realize that I was the only objective observer of this work and

A New Publication

It is time for a change, God spoke to me and told me the more you write about this new move of God the more I will begin to show up and start the fire. Who am I to think that God will move through what we write, and then I remember the year 1993 two years before the fire hit Pensacola.

that if I didn't write a book on this subject, I would miss God. We never start projects because we can do them, we start a written work because God moves inside of your Spirit man and begins to flow through you like a powerful wind. I was not the only one who saw this revival, but I was the newspaper man who recorded these events from month to month.

Transision is going from one place to another because it is time for a change. It is time for a change, God spoke to me and told me the more you write about this new move of God the more I will begin to show up and start the fire. Who am I to think that God will move through what we write, and then I remember the year 1993 two years before the fire hit Pensacola. My impressions after hearing John Kilpatrick share the story of the angels at the back of his church was enough to get me into the mood of a publication. John Kilpatrick has been a friend to us and I remember what he said after we did the story on the Angels at the back of the church in Columbus Church. "I long for the God of my childhood." Kilpatrick was as hungry for revival as much as I was hungry to write about those supernatural Angeles. In November of 1993 hunger increased when we opened the door to the supernatural. I don't know what it is about a written word, but to me it was like a match. Opening the doors of the supernatural and writting about them can cause hunger. It is with this burden that I write this to you now. God said this is going to be new, people are waiting for this and the vision that God has given us is too much to be held on to, I must write this vision and release it now.

There will only be the faces of the hungry in these new pages. God said some of the old move of God will show up in the new but his emphasis will return to healing and the Baptism in the Holy Ghost. He has spoken to my heart to write about some people you have never heard of. God has directed to two individuals that you will read about in this new blog. I asked God who he wanted me to write about in this expanded circle of the Supernatural. He spoke to me to travel back to the Columbus, Georgia area and visit Steven Shelley. I heard this very loud and clear from the voice of God. Another individual who has affected my thoughts and my mind is Paul Keith Davis. His hunger for the Supernatural has set us all up in the place of expectation. Now I am going to do my part. This is a fresh look but it revolves around many men from the past who have opened the doors of the Supernatural. God has said that in the next three years we will go beyond the doors of William Branham, A.A. Allen and the Latter Rain move of God will be brought back but this time it will have new and effective people who have been called forth at this moment to lead.

Lakeland Is On Fire Since April 4, 2008

Evangelist Todd Bentley has been in revival since April 4, 2008 at Lakeland, Florida's Ignited Church. Several people have found Christ and have been healed.

By Revivalists Tom and Susie Scarrella

LAKELAND, FL — If there is one thing we've learned as ministers of revival it's that there are times that God pours out His glory in a way that can easily overwhelm and just when we think we've received it all He pours out some more. As revivalists and an affiliate ministry of Todd Bentley, we live for these times and contend for more of them.

April 2, 2008 marked the beginning of such a time. Planned for months in advance, Evangelist Todd Bentley was scheduled to minister in a 4-day conference at Ignited Church in Lakeland, Florida. "It seemed that God walked into the building right from the beginning of the first meeting!" said one conference attendee. "I've been here every night and most of the day time meetings. I've never experienced anything like this before. I just don't want it to ever end."

"I knew this was out of the ordinary and that we had to extend to see what God was up to. I have not had this happen to this depth and power since the early days of my ministry in Albany, Oregon," said Bentley. Airing live each night on GodTv, the 4-day conference has been extended three times, each time deciding to continue as the glory and manifested power of God is increasing. Todd has now extended week 5, or until May 2nd and have many in the nightly crowds hoping the date is once again pushed back. So many flock into the meetings that the local fire marshal has restricted attendance at maximum capacity and the revival is now seeking a new, much larger facility to accommodate the growing crowds.

Ministers have been flooding into the meetings from around the world including, England, Australia, South America, Finland, Germany, Peru, Columbia, Canada, and various countries throughout Africa. [Most nights boast of as few as 38 and as many as 46 states

As with most revivals throughout church history, worship is fundamentally key. Each night rings in with amazing, deep, heart-felt worship as Bentley's worship leader Roy Fields often leads the crowd in the song that in many ways has ear-marked the revival, Rain Down, by Delirious? The lyrics seem to typify what God is busy doing in Lakeland, Florida.

Looks like tonight, the sky is heavy -- Feels like the winds are gonna change Beneath my feet, the earth is ready -- I know its time for heaven's rain, it's gonna rain It's gonna rain, again -- Cuz' it's living water we desire To flood out hearts with holy fire Rain down all around the world we're singing -- Rain down can you here the earth is singing -- Rain down my heart is dry but still I'm singing -- Rain down rain it down on me -- After the third day of meetings we received a phone call from Todd urging us that God was pouring out in what seems within reach as a limitless measure. Rearranging our traveling ministry schedule as quickly as possible we first attended during the second week of the revival outpouring. The anticipation was so thick in the air it could be felt as we drove on the lot of the church. Lines of people were waiting outside the church building as early as 2:00 p.m. for fear they wouldn't arrive in time to get seating in the main sanctuary and rather get pushed into one of the three over-flow rooms. The electricity we felt in the air is a distant reminder of the 1990s during the Pensacola and Smithton, Missouri revivals.

Returning in the third week of the revival we could feel it had intensified. Each night the power of God fell. Sinners rushed the stage to be saved. Two days into the second week the fear of the Lord fell so strong that Todd couldn't speak. People wept under the goodness, mercy and glory of God. Children were being caught up into visions of Jesus, most of them for the first time, as youth sit by the hundreds on the floor watching as Todd, coated in tattoos, decorated with piercings flowed in the power of the Holy Spirit. That night as Todd preached on the fire of God the entire congregation began to smell the aroma of smoke. Suddenly miracles started up all over again.

Different than the

revivals of the 1990s this outpouring is set apart for the multitude of amazing miracles. It's not uncommon that each night there are terminal disease cured, drug addictions broke in an instant, mental illnesses leaving and even 4 cases of autism completely freed and restored to normality. Out of this amazing atmosphere healings began to occur and an 8 yr old boy who needed a kidney transplant came forward with his father and testified of having a vision in the meeting of Jesus coming to him and telling the boy that he was healed!

Since the beginning of the revival there has been one reoccurring miracle that stands out as a sign and a wonder – scars are disappearing. C-section scars, operational scars, scars related to injuries and accidents, even scars from "cutting" are simply disappearing. The Fresh Fire team is inundation daily with the hundreds of testimonies of disappearing scars from those in the meetings and those viewing on streaming video over the web and on GodTv.

"This outpouring really began with a prophetic word from a prophet in New Zealand while I was there in March" says Todd. He told about a fire of revival breaking forth in Florida and said that Florida would be another place for my ministry [Fresh Fire Ministries] to be housed. He said it is a fire – a global revival that was to shortly take place." Since the revival anointing began in Lakeland, Florida each night Todd calls out to all church leaders, pastors, evangelists, prophets, etc. to receive the laying on of hands for the transfer of that revival anointing. "Holy Spirit gave me strict instructions to give it away. He told me that if I didn't give it away it would die!"

"I'm a pastor of an evangelical Christian church" said one visiting pastor, "I was taught against all this stuff, but you know, Satan can't cast out Satan, right? I need the revival anointing. When Todd prayed for me I felt it, I know this is real. I love Jesus more now than before! I'm going home with REVIVAL."

Daily Todd encourages the people to take prayer clothes that he prays over and lay them on the sick, demonized, drug abusers, and hurting people. Daily the testimonies by the hundreds storm into the meetings with God's power moving in the hearts of His people.

Here are a few more testimonies from the Miracle Revival in Lakeland, Florida:

A lady had two titanium rods in her back... 17 years of pain... barely able to lean forward... feeling heat... she went down under the power... came up... POPS IN HER BACK... starts laughing... total joy... bending over!!!

A man had a metal plate in the back of his neck had been healed last week, but his knee cap was not healed yet... HE TOOK OFF RUNNING!!!

Friday night I held prayer clothes in my hand when Todd prayed for the impartation of the anointing. My pregnant friend, Terry, went home to Ohio on Tuesday and took a cloth with her. She was scheduled for cancer surgery on Thursday... When the tests were done... there was NO CANCER.....SURGERY CANCELLED!

A man had been diagnosed with Heb-C twice in the last nine months... Todd called out the word about Hepatitis-C... Lab reports came back... TOTALLY GONE!!!!

A lady brings her 4 year old daughter back to the meeting after she had responded to a word of knowledge from Brother Todd in a previous meeting. With her she carries two x-rays. One x-ray shows her daughter's broken elbow. The second shows her daughters elbow completely healed.

A man came in with an oxygen tank... he started walking around the room to check it out... without the oxygen he would faint!!! HE LEFT THE OXYGEN TANK BEHIND!!!

A lady responded to a word of knowledge for a stint in the heart... Todd touched her... she felt fire... she says... "I AM HEALED!"

A mother brought her two year old who had heart surgery when he was 2 weeks old... and is scheduled for more surgery... until tonight... the mother tells Todd, "his heart beats like a washing machine!!!" Todd prays for the child...HE GOES INTO A TRANCE FOR OVER FIVE MINUTES!!!

Pastor Denny Kline of Albany Vineyard church in Oregon attended these historic meetings during the second week. His church hosted Todd Bentley just ten years ago when revival first erupted in Todd's ministry. "Ten years ago we planned for revival with Todd. We made preparations because we knew what God wanted to do. Most church leaders won't plan for revival and because of that they won't ever have revival. They are too enamored with their church plans and programs, but we are planning for revival and we are willing to allow the Lord to move as long as He wants to move...how about you? Do what you must to attend these meetings in order to prepare for revival. The monetary cost is so very minor in comparison to value of revival impartation." Having been there over the past four weeks we couldn't have said it any better.

Our ministry email and voicemails have been busy with pastors and evangelist friends inquiring to find out if this is a "real" revival. Most question if we have another Pensacola Revival on our hands. It's difficult for us to answer that. So instead we simply tell them

"God's Spirit is precious and He is moving in a very special way in Lakeland, Florida. The rain is falling. The fire is burning.

Supernatural phenomenons are regular happenings. Hurting ministers and ministries are being set free once again. The nations are coming from afar to receive. Unbelievers are turning into believers. Chains of addictions and mental illness are being broken. Notable miracles are common in every meeting. So, given all that and more you decide."

And we'll leave you with the words of our One and Only, "No man can do these miracles, unless God is with him." [John 3]

Hill was speaking at The Church of His Presence pastored by John A. Kilpatrick.

Hill's message before the message really touched the crowd that had gathered for this revival event. Steve Hill said he recognized the powerful pull of Christian Television and how God pulls people into harvest them through that medium. He said recently while he spoke on TBN he addressed a message to those who are the Prodigals. When he directed them toward his web site and the special page he had set up for them, his server caught fire in an overload.

"We had more responses and testimonies of prodigals coming to Christ and repenting for what they had done in the past." Hill warned the Christian's who

He also said that this is going to be one of the greatest areas of harvest in the coming days. "Prodigal's are important because when they come home they can hit the grown how they were changed in Pensacola." Hill had just returned from Russia and Czechoslovakia. He said that Communism is taking hold again in my family, I ran out of my ministry. I chose to get into drugs, I chose to get into porn. Hill said that the first place people needed to come from is the blame game. You are responsible for who you are, no one can put their selves in Hell but their selves.

Hill the evangelist for the Brownsville Revival said that power and the door was closing. For evangelical work there. He also said that he saw hundreds touched by the power of God in the eastern European Countries that he traveled to recently many receiving the Baptism in the Holy Ghost spontaneously without asking for them to receive.

DAPHNE, AL — On Thursday and Friday of April 4 and 5 the power of God was once again with the three that made revival history in Pensacola. In one of the most historic weeks in the State of Alabama Steve Hill came to preach a timely message. Many were preparing for the day of remembrance in

It was 40 years ago that he was assassinated by a snipers bullet at the Loraine Hotel in Memphis, Tennessee. The great leader of Civil Rights will be remembered by Lou Engle of The CALL in Montgomery, Alabama on Saturday.

MONTGOMERY, AL -- You had to be there to feel the intensity of the at the Renaissance Center in downtown Montgomery. From early in the morning to late at night black and white leaders came to historic Montgomery, Alabama. One writer put it this way, Montgomery, Alabama has had more social change in this country than Boston, Washington and Philadelphia ever had. You see it was from the balcony of the Old Confederate State House that the Alabama along with 12 other states decided to withdraw from the Union in 1860 for the sake of slavery. It was at the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church under the shadow of the Confederate capital that a prophet chose to lead a nation out of a social slavery. Yes Lou Engle choose the anniversary of the death of Martin Luther King, Jr's death in Memphis to hold a meeting that would be one of the stepping stones of revival in this nation.

The night before his death in Memphis, Dr. King gave a message to his people during the Memphis Garbage Strike. He said that he had been to the top of the mountain and that he had seen the promise land. Dr. King could have been looking in on the meeting on April 5th and saw the unity of the breatheren in their quest to find revival in racial curse of Alabama. and they were opening a door at the same time to accommodate the dreamers vision of racial harmony. It made me very proud as a citizen of this state to witness this powerful move of God in this historic place called Montgomery, Alabama. "All through the day, I cried and wept over the State of Alabama — the move of God was so intense I called off our regular church meeting on Saturday night." These were the comments of a pastor from Alabama who watched the entire event on his computer after logging on to God TV. This was a holy stage in one of the most historic cities for change in the United States, Montgomery, Alabama.

For one day in the history of the world, Alabama was in the cross hairs of revival as God Television ran the Montgomery's meeting all over the world. From Africa to Saudi Arabia you could log on to the internet and see the blow by blow events against the kingdom of darkness and racism in Alabama. God doesn't make mistakes, Lou Engle began to prepare for this event a year before it happened. Engle had a prophetic vision in a dream, he was digging into the ground and came across a rock with Alabama written on its top, he shared this vision with Paul Keith Davis. Davis the following weekend came home to the Mobile area to tell his monthly group what Engle had scene.

Montgomery, Alabama has done more to changed the face of this country than even the events of the Revolutionary War. While Philadelphia and Boston might have been the birth of a nation, one day that nation would divide because of the hypocrisy of the early founder fathers. The documents of the Declaration of Independence and The Constitution of the United States were signed by people who participated in the slave trade. In England William Wilberforce's efforts in England to end the slave trade came from the early statements of John Wesley and the Methodist Church. He had joined the evangelical section of the Episcopal Church. Slavery was abolished in England in 1833, but the plantation owner Thomas Jefferson was blind when he wrote the words life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; he maintained slaves on his farm until the time of his death. He was hailed as a brilliant scholar as he composed and wrote The Constitution of the United States, at the time it was one of the most liberating documents since the Magna Carta, but the document was flawed because its designer Thomas Jefferson had slaves at Monticello until the day of his death. The actual document spoke about life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, these words were blemished because it never recognized the brutality of slavery. This mistake would cause the country to divide in a Civil War in 1860, and 600,000 men would go to their death to free an enslaved nation within a nation, the union corrected itself. One must never forget that the Civil War and the withdrawal of thirteen states came from the balcony of the old state house in Montgomery, Alabama. The country began with 13 colonies, in the Bible the number thirteen represents betrayal. It was the vision of Jefferson to create a free society from England but in his intellectual pursuit he was blinded by the pursuit of his own wealth and social standing in Virginia. There were disputes about the new Constitution because slaves made up one fifth of the population of the new country. Most congressional districts were set up by population but John Adams put a proposal forward that treated slaves as property. George Washington who presided over the meeting was also a wealthy slave owner from Virginia. These documents called for justice and one day the ship would be righted by a new covenant put forth by a man named Abraham Lincoln in the Emancipation Proclamation, during the third year of the Civil War.

Montgomery will always play a major role in the affairs of this country. It was in 1955 that a woman named Rosa Parks decided that she wanted to ride on the front of the bus. A black minister came to Montgomery at this time to Pastor the Dexter Street Baptist Church. Martin Luther King, Jr. never dreamed that he would change and entire nation through non violent protest. His studies in Boston centered around another man of social change who came from Durban, South Africa. It was Mahatma Gandhi who said I would become a Christian if I could find one. The model of Civil Rights was patterned after the early struggles of race in Durban. Gandhi, was hungry to be a Christian but one day a man turned him away from a church because the color of his skin. The liberator of India could have been a Christian had the man at that door let the little South African Barrister into the house of God. Gandhi changed the social order of Durban through non violence and he used the principles of Christianity to liberate India Lou Engel understands the liberation of race, he said, "The most segregated time in our county is on Sunday morning." Perhaps the dream that Martin Luther King, Jr. saw on top of the mountain went beyond the laws of Civil Rights in a country who is black and white on Sunday morning. The vision that King saw on top of the mountain was the vision of the breakdown of race on Sunday morning. Lou Engles vision for this day was to once again challenge the system. It wouldn't be by the law but it would be by the Spirit. No amount of legislation could ever undo segregation on Sunday morning in America. These changes are done by the Spirit of God in His mighty presence. That is why on Saturday June the fifth we went beyond Rosa Parks and the Civil War to declare a war on the things that separate. Many believe that the greatest revival in America will start in Alabama as the hatred of races would fall at the altar of repentance and the dream that Martin Luther King, Jr. had would be fulfilled by message of hope that is found in revival.

People who have vision are people who can see events happen because they happen. The wealth of the world could not buy the freedom of men because it is usually those systems that put the chains on men and blind the vision of liberty and revival, but those who have the vision walk it out. It is understood that the greatest social change always begins in Alabama. God's vision keeps coming back to the same place until He displays His raw power and brings revival. What Lou Engel saw was change, not in the politics of the day but in the Kingdom of Heaven. Engle saw it before the meeting and he understood that Alabama deals with the most difficult truths. He believed that God wanted to start it all over again in America but this time it would be done in the church as we know it. This is one of the major doors to go through before the vision of revival is birthed in men's hearts. II Chronicles 7:14 If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

What Lou Engel saw was change, not in the politics of the day but in the Kingdom of Heaven. Engle saw it before the meeting and he understood that Alabama deals with the most difficult truths.

The Call was an entire day of intercessory prayer based on the 40th Anniversary of the death of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Mike Bickle came in and said that the last two weeks in Kansas City the people had made a covenant together to relate to sexual immorality in the church and he based it upon Revelation 2:19-20. Because of the church scandals, the call to holiness has been heard. Dutch Sheets followed and led powerful intercession also but the afternoon was filled with intercession and testimony to save the unborn.

Lou Engle said, "If we lost 600,000 people because of slavery in the Civil War, how many people will die because of killing of innocent life in the womb." A group of women who had been through abortions took the stage in the afternoon. One woman got up who was black and told the story of having an abortion when she was 16 years old. She said she was living her life and believing a lie. The others also came forward and spoke about the one sin that America will have to answer for one day. After these women spoke, tremendous intercession touched the building. It was like that all day, in the heavenlies the power and the witness of God flooded the building. Anyone who was there will never forget what was done. The powerful move of God is a testimony to the virtue of the leaders who led this massive wave of intercession. For one day in Alabama the world saw a vision of hope for revival in America.

Creative Miracles Revelation

- For years Paul Keith Davis and Bob Jones have worked together in conferences to find the mind of God for that particular situation and for that moment. While one has more years than the other in the prophetic realm, many things have happened that have opened the door for certain things in the heavenly realm. In those revelations the church has many times been given the knowledge of God to act within the time of that moment. Prophets are seers know what God is going to do before it happens. It says in Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealed his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Recently in Smiths Station, Alabama, Paul Keith Davis spoke at a conference in Pastor Steve Shelley's church New Hope Church. The conference was in the middle of February of this year. It was on this occasion in this environment that Davis revealed something about the atmosphere of the church and also a word that had been given to him on December 10, 2002. This word of revelation had been birthed already but this word seemed to fit the circumstance and the situation of this particular New Hope Church.

During the conference in Oregon it was Paul Keith's time to deliver the message. He was challenged to find another word for that day, and at the time he felt he would just continue on from what was being said the night before. As Paul took his shower God gave him two words, Eyes and Ears, and quickly the Holy Spirit brought to memory seven scriptures that would verify this word given, but this word was going to have another dimension of truth that Davis was not expecting.

Each morning the speakers who were in the conference would meet for breakfast and compare notes and see if God had spoken a direction for that day. As Paul Keith came to the table, Bob Jones immediately asked, "Who is Sundar." He was taken back. Keith asked Jones what do you mean, and then Jones said he had a vision this morning, and then a word came from Paul saying, "You didn't have a vision you had a visitation." As strange as it was when he said it, Jones said, "Your Paul Keith Davis commented that he had written a book after this message was given. The book is called Engaging The Revelatory Realm of Heaven.

During the conference at Steven Shelley's church Paul Keith Davis mentioned that he thought that the unity that was in the church could be a place where God would release his power for great miracles. Following the leadership of the Holy Spirit the Lord spoke to me as the editor of The Remnant Magazine to seek out those people who would be in the next move of God. Some of them are no named places and no named people who will be in the direct flow of what God is going to do in the last days. It's not because I am from Alabama that I see the vision for this state or my area where I live but there are too many things that point to the places where God will put his hand. In prayer I told God that I would dedicate myself to what he wants to do in the next move of God and then I put two people in front of him to go in visit. Both of these men have Godly works in this state but one pressed on my heart deeply. The Lord said, "Go an look behind this door and you will find me." During the time of coming and going to Smith Station, Alabama I had many visitations from the evil one to take me off my road but the day I visited Pastor Steven Shelley and New Hope Church was a day marked on a calendar. It was William Branham's birthday April 6, 2008, he would have been 99 years old today. I just came to see and visit with Steven Shelley to learn of this man but what came forth was more than a visit. As the praise turned to worship in the church, God began to show me something. I sat on the first pew of the church and the warm inviting Spirit of God flowed through the house. I was going to interview Pastor Shelley later but God began to speak to me about the church. Shelley got up and asked me to take my time, preach, prophecy and do what God will have you to do.

The Editor began to speak about a written word, "You know, we started our vision this way. It says in scripture, "Write the vision and run with it." I didn't know what the Lord was saying to me, but it was fifteen years ago I met a man called John Kilpatrick at a pastors' meeting. He stood up and he spoke about Phenix City, Alabama, and he spoke about Columbus, Georgia. And he spoke about a pastor named Wetzel. Wetzel must have been a portal from God because he knew how to get a hold of God. He was the mentor of Steven Shelley also. Well, when we were in worship, I saw something. I saw a vein of gold on the eastern side of Alabama. You know, in the old days, when they said there was gold in them there hills, what happened when the gold was in the hills? Everybody that wanted to make an economy within their own pocket book ran to that place. But this is not a gold that will advance you in the kingdom of money, but this is a gold and a presence that's on this side of Alabama. And when they find out that there is gold here, they will come and they will come. I'm sharing something with you that in the days of John Wesley, his move could not be contained within the inside of the church. I'm telling you that the sides of this hill . . . I prophesy today that the sides of this hill will be covered with gold and people coming for answers."

Miller continued, "I asked God . . . I said, "This is a new move of God. I've got to build a new foundation for a Temple." We ended "The Remnant" newspaper in November after thirteen years. It is the history of the Brownsville Revival. It is the only recorded history of that revival. And the Lord said, "Start a new work with these new men."

And I said, "Well, who are these new men?" And then somebody introduced me to Paul Keith Davis. My wife and I have went to these meetings in Robertsedale. And I said, "There's something there. There's a Presence of God that's so great, I've got to have some more of that."

"And then God just moved on me and He said, 'You know, this is all the way different than anything that you have ever touched.'" And I said, "Paul, I want to commit myself to this." I said, "I'm not financially able to move like I want to move." I said, "But they did call it a remnant, didn't they?"

See, there's a small group of people that are hungry for the Presence of God. And because of their pressing in and their sacrifice, they say that the Lord was breaking through. Well, I am sharing something with you today that He is breaking through. The remnant is breaking through.

"You see, if you can break through to the Presence of God and bring Him in your House, then they will come from the East, the South, the North and the West because they are hungry, and they are desperate, and they are dying."

"It always comes through a remnant. Oh God, I can feel this today. And I asked the Lord, 'Well, where do You want me to go?' And I set my soul in one direction, and the Lord said, "That guy that you missed here speaking down in Robertsdale, Alabama, that's the man I want you to go and visit. Because through him, something magnificent is going people. His word was explosive as it contained a revelation that he had received the night before. The entire day Pastor Shelley had listened and watched The Call from Montgomery, Alabama on Saturday. He told his people that it was so powerful that they called off the Saturday Church service but he said that night he had a powerful dream, "In the dream I received a call from one of my church members. I recognized the voice and he kept saying over and over again that you've got to get home. When I calmed him down enough I got him to tell me what was happening there. He said, there coming from everywhere and they are being healed, you've got to get home, and then I remember telling him, who told them?"

When we speak and talk about events such as these where healing will be an open vision then we speak about the vision that God has given His church. These are not radical representations of the truth. The prophetic statements are statements of the last days and the last age of revival within this country.

to happen. And then he told me that R.C. Wetzel was his mentor. And I said, Does eastern Alabama have all the glory?"

"But I tell you, the story hasn't been written. But I have a written Word that is yet to come through me, to be birthed. Because when it's birthed, and it's signaled across this land, Alabama shall see the glory of God. There are things that are happening here that can't happen anywhere else. It has to happen here. This is the first place that slavery came to and

Politics says that there's change, but God says that there's a bigger change. His mystery to be revealed - I'm telling you how big it is. This is the last move of God on the face of the earth. I really believe it. And He is going to center it through the center of Alabama. He's going to turn back age-old things that need to be repented of. And the land is going to feel the Spirit of God. And there will be no more prejudice in the land. There will be no more

Sonny Busby Power Evangelist

MOBILE, AL — It was 1955 and the Assemblies of God built a small mission near the Mississippi State Line with block walls and a sawdust floor. The power of God was moving in that building and the local Klu Klux Klan had a message to the pastor. “We’re going to take care of all the blacks who are at that revival.” While the hot fire of the Holy Ghost was inside the building blacks from the local community were outside the building looking into the church. Several were receiving the Baptism in the Holy Ghost but Grand Dragon Sonny Busby had a date with destiny. Busby’s cousin was pastoring the Grand Bay Assembly of God Church, his name was pastor Norman. As the clan gathered outside the building Pastor Norman told them to leave the property, Sonny Busby told him you go inside and take care of business in there and we will take care of business out here. The pastor told Sonny he would go to the truck stop across the street and call the law. It never came to that but Norman went outside the church several times to holding on to the pew with white knuckles, it was then Busby said, “I’m going to go up front just to shut you up preacher.” When he got to the altar rail, Pastor Norman tapped Busby’s top pocket me by Pastor Norman years later. I remembered when he came home that night, God’s power had touched him so deep he had a house cleaning. Magazines, tobacco and anything else involved and said, ‘They’ve never ever seen you pray over the food, what did you think they would do.’ Then he said I’m not going to church tonight, and his wife said, ‘Well we’re going, only had seven members. Daddy had an explosive personality, he learned how to get the best musicians in the church by traveling around to all the bars. Many of the church people didn’t like what he was doing by going to these musicians that found in the bars. In just one year he had more than 100 people in the church and had built on a Sunday School edition. Daddy had a Cadillac and he traded it for a VW bus, he took that wagon and went through all the places on the coast to pick up those who were in sin. He knew all these places because that was his old stomping grounds. Eventually the church in a years time had grown to 114 people. The church began to have opposition from other pastors in the region and it was becoming time to move on. Busby brought Jack Coe’s prayer tent and tractor trailer and set it up on the land that was donated for the first church. An ex-clan ask the Grand Dragon of the Klu Klux Klan inside the meeting. Finally Busby came inside. While the church was singing the song Oh What A Savior the pastor walked back to Busby and encouraged him to give his heart to Jesus. Something was happening with the Klansman as the third time the pastor came back to Busby’s pew. Conviction was on Busby as he was where his cigarettes were and asked, “Are you willing to give them up if you get saved.” Busby said, “I give it all up if I get saved.”

Lee (Bub) Busby was just eight years old and remembered the night his father got saved, “They kept putting their hands on top of his head and he would push them away but God finally came through and my father got saved. This was told to that would offend God was carried out the door and burned. I remember the first time daddy said grace over the meal. My sister and I had never seen my father pray over the food, in fact we had never seen my daddy pray. We started laughing and giggling and it raised my father’s anger. My father grabbed me up and was fixing to give me a dose of the belt until mother got with or without you.’ He did go to church because Ofman Hamilton brought him. He was really hungry to know and learn about Jesus. Daddy couldn’t read at all but he became a Sunday School teacher as the Spirit of God taught him how to read. He was going to do something with his life and his first church experience as a Pastor was in Orange Grove, Mississippi where he member's mother donated land for a new church for the people being saved at the revival. Sonny became the new pastor of East Side Church, when the Assembly of God leadership came over they told him that he had built a church too close to his last work. It was then my father gave his Assembly of God credentials over to the leadership and became an independent preacher.

Once again the foundation of a church was built and Sonny Busby felt the need to go to the field of evangelism, he resigned his church in 1961 and set up his first gospel campaign. Busby took the tractor trailer and picked up a brand new tent that was built in Alba, Alabama it was 750 to 1,000 seat tent and measured 120 feet by 60 feet wide. His first evangelic meeting was in Opp, Alabama but something wasn't right, you could tell my dad felt empty. He began to fast and pray and then things really began to take off. He began to fast every day because the revival was scheduled to go 6 weeks. One day he fainted while he was walking around the tractor trailer, I picked him up and took him in the trailer. It was then he woke up and said, "I've found the answer."

He moved his tent to Andalusia, Alabama next and set it up for a miracle crusade. The confidence of God was flowing through Sonny as he got a taste of what God wanted to do. He met a man who was a peanut farmer and got to be close friends with him, his mother had stomach cancer and the man brought her to the meetings. She came to meeting very ill from the cancer. My father prayed for her and see came back the next day with a large jar. Inside the jar was her stomach cancer, she said, "While you were praying for me I passed this cancer through my bowels." She was one hundred percent cancer free and it never came back in her body ever again.

It was a small beginning but it was a door opened to many more doors. Finally Sonny was on the outside of established religion in a tent where the sky was the limit with God. Being thankful for his mother's healing Sonny and his family was invited to dinner. I was just 15 years old and while we were playing in the barn his small boy drank some diesel fuel and died on the spot. My dad responded to the little boy by laying hands on him and raising him from the dead. How far could this ability go, the contagious personality of Sonny Busby and the new found power of God brought him to a higher place of faith where he had never been before. When he was a boy going to the Baptist Church he saw a vision in his sleep of praying for the sick in a great tent, when he asked his pastor about it, he discouraged the boy and told him to forget it. The vision was beginning to happen and the next stop would be Greenville, Alabama. Busby had learned that to have power, it required positive faith and the preparation of fasting. The second tent meeting was no different than the first but it only lasted one night. Bub Busby said, "We went to Andalusia with an organ player, and a front man. He was only there one night but a blind man was in the healing line and when daddy prayed for him his eyes were immediately healed. I believe that the meeting in Greenville was just for that one person to receive his sight." Sonny had ventured out in just two of his first meetings and saw a little boy raised from the dead, a woman healed of stomach cancer, and a blind man who received his sight, but the real test of faith would be the long road.

There is no doubt the kingdom of darkness would try to push on this man's armor but in the next few years the door of miracles would open that brought terror to the kingdom of darkness. When a man finally reaches the plateau of his ministry they will call upon you come, but Sonny Busby would not be distracted by these voices because he could still hear the voice of God more than his own popularity.

In 1965 the move toward Civil Rights was a flash point in the South. Sonny Busby once a Grand Dragon in the Klu Klux Klan would have meetings where there were poor blacks who wanted the touch of God. They were powerful believers and caused faith to rise in the gospel tent. In such a time as this. The Klan still had it in for Busby and while he was in Franklin, Kentucky his son had went to a small gas station to get a cold drink after he had worked all day. The owner asked the young boy, "Are you with that nigger loving preacher in the tent down there." Lee Busby, Sonny's son said, "Yes, I am." With that the store owner knocked him out the front door near the gas pups and the boys face began to swell. When he got back to the tent Sonny's son tried to hide his face from his dad but when his father found out what had happened, he got an ax handle and went down to the small gas station. He knocked on the door with the ax handle in his hand and said, "I know who you are and what you are because I've walked in your shoes come on out here." The store owner had closed and was hiding under the counter in the front. Franklin was a small town with the railroad tracks going down the middle of the main street. Busby went to the police station that was across the street from the gas station. By that time the store owner had a whole group of Klansman at the store. Busby told the police officer on duty he wanted to bring charges against the man but he would not take the charges. Looking out the window at the gas station several pick up trucks had

Bowling Green, Kentucky the Klan sent a message that if Busby said anything about his testimony they would be there. Busby hired a photographer to be in the tent, as the evangelist gave his testimony a man stood up in the back of the tent with a knife and said preacher, 'I'm going to kill you.' Busby told him, 'Your not going to kill me, God's not finished with me yet.' All the while the photographer had gotten into the message and had forgot to take pictures but the man was rushing the pulpit with a knife. He got ten feet in front of Busby and the power of God pulled him to the ground. Busby walked forward put his foot on his hand and took the knife. That night the Klansman was saved under the gospel tent. One night a motorcycle gang member hollered at the preacher while he was preaching and asked him, "How far is Hell preacher?" Busby hollered back at the man, "It could be right around the corner." At that moment the man took off at a high speed turned the corner and met a Mack Truck, head on. Sonny Busby's son was watching his dad on the road and taking it all in and had no idea how supernatural and unusual his father really was. Vision is sometimes given to the most unexpected people and Sonny Busby had to be a converted as Klansman for gathered by that time. Busby told the policeman on duty, "You see that bunch down there, I know who they are and I know what they are — I've been there, I was the head of group like that, I probably know some of them. I want you to tell all of them, this preacher hadn't come to Franklin to run. God sent me here to stay until His work is done." With that the preacher and his son left and followed through with what God had called them to do. That night a woman was backed up to the tent in an ambulance on a death bed. Busby prayed for her and she was raised up off the stretcher, she was in the closing moments of cancer. Sonny Busby never backed up from the threats of the Klan, he was a man called to handle the mix of color under his tent. Probably the greatest displays of miracles happened because of the unity that was found in his meetings. He had broken all racial barriers that allowed the power of the Holy Ghost to flow in a deeper way. The flow of what God had for Sonny began to get intense as he went into some of the poorest communities in Kentucky and West Virginia. While he was there the wealthiest person in Franklin was a black women, she asked Busby to come over and preach at her church. Busby accepted the invitation and during the meeting Busby came into contact with the women's daughter who was demon possessed. She had threatened to kill her mother several times, and when she was in the meeting she had a board with piece of iron on it. When Busby engaged the women to pray for her she ran the board down Busby's hand and then when Busby anointed her head she dropped to the floor and began to contour like a snake as she hissed and wiggled across the floor. Busby held a long conversation with the demon but the evangelist had his way and set the women free. She found peace with the Lord as she began to wilt, God took control of her life. Busby told the church anyone who doesn't have the Baptism in the Holy Ghost better start repeating the name of Jesus. When demons are cast out of an individual they very often seek the refuge of those who are not in the grace of God. Sonny said get you a bible and hold it because these demons will seek refuge in another person. Lee Busby, Sonny's son wanted to see his fathers hand where the possessed person scared him, but when he looked at his hand there was not a scare or any blood. For eight years Lee (Bub) Busby traveled with his father in the revival tent through America. Lee said during that time I met several powerful men of God including William Branham, and A. A. Allen and never knew who they were until later. Lee Busby said, "These men were not in competition with each other, they knew each other. They respected each other's ministry but I can tell you one thing, that the miracles that happened under my father's tent were just as powerful as the ones going on with the other healing evangelists. This was a season of healing where God placed his men of faith in certain places. Great favor was on their lives. This was a time of unlimited power in the Holy Ghost. My father had great faith for the impossible."

For eight years the gospel tent traveled around America and everywhere it went the glory of God was revealed but there was one particular meeting that stands out more than all the others and it was in West Virginia. Before Busby left for the West Virginia preachers and evangelists told him, don't go there you'll starve to death, they won't support you. He could hear God's voice pulling him toward the state. The people who came to those meetings came with belief. He had services in Huntington and then moved on to Logan, West Virginia and set up his tent in a place of devastation called Black Bottom, it was a shanty town. There was an old blues song written about Black Bottom that said, "Don't go down to Black Bottom put your money in your shoes for the women will take your money from you." Lee (Bub) Busby said that when the night came and the first key on the organ was struck, the power came down for the next four years. From the first night the fullness of every healing miracle would happen in that shanty town.

inside of it. He did this to display what would happen at the rapture, the tent lights would go down and a spot light would shine on the casket, at the right moment when my dad would say the dead in Christ shall rise and we that are alive and remain shall be called up to meet the Lord in the air, NOW. Now was the key to turn all the lights down, sound the horn and keep the spot light on the casket, the lid would fly up and the women would come out and they would run over one another running to the altar. One night a black man witnessed the women coming out of the coffin and he got so excited he ran down to the town mortician and told him, You might as well close up, that preacher down in that tent is raisin up as fast as they die."

At Logan, West Virginia no one knew how long the Black Bottom Revival would continue but the more powerful it got the towns people gave Sonny Busby and his family a building to live in. There they established a church and then they bought him a 620 multilift printing press and an addressograph machine, to publish the miracles and the events of this move of God." Sonny's son spoke of the events of this great revival. "One of the greatest miracles that happened during the Black Bottom Revival was when a small crippled girl with polio who could barely walk came toward the evangelist for healing. The people were moved by her because she could hardly walk. This little girl came up without hope but when my father prayed for her he could feel the power of God. He told her to go behind the curtain and remove the braces, I believe God has healed you. As the little girl went behind the curtain she came out running holding both braces and it put a charge in the people as the level of faith exploded that night. We were just coming out with my father's first revival magazine, Camp Meeting Revival Magazine and we put her picture on the front cover. During this time my wife and I had just been married, we lived in a small apartment during the meetings where the printing press was in the back. We helped publish the new magazine for the revival. We received prayer to conceive a child and from the time we were prayed for until we visited the doctor was seven weeks. The doctor gave the report we were pregnant with our first child, and he said that it was seven weeks into the pregnancy. We conceived on the night we went forward for prayer. While the baby was in womb a fine Christian lady named Geraldine came and gave prophecy over the child and said he was going to win many souls for the Kingdom of God, that baby was my son James Lee Busby, who now pastors Cross and Crown Family Worship Center."

While Sonny Busby slipped from grace after this meeting, he demonstration that the power of God was for a new generation of believers. For years on end the people spoke about the miracles of God because it just wouldn't leave their minds. Today Sonny Busby is 83 years old and the miracles still happen because the mantle of God is still on His servant Sonny.
